FABULOUS FOODS!

Who's hungry? Like any good school, SPU needs an amazing cafeteria food court. Since we have students from all over the country, world, and even universe, we need a variety of restaurants serving lots of different foods.

First, create a restaurant for our food court, and say what kind of food it serves, thinking about where it comes from and the style of food (Italian? Brazilian? Glaxo-Blorgian?) Then, come up with menu items served there.

Next, you can draw the restaurant's chef (the one making the food) and design any special tools they use.

Lastly, you can invent the chef's signature dish, which is what the chef is famous for making.

Remember: you have Permission to Get Weird: you can use real kinds of foods or made up ones, or both!

We can't wait to see what you come up with!
